FARNBOROUGH, July 16, 2008 (AFP) - US aircraft giant Boeing said Wednesday it had won an order from US leasing firm Aviation Capital Group (ACG) for 15 737-700 aircraft worth 934 million dollars at catalogue prices.

The latest order brings to 96 the aircraft on order from ACG -- 91 737s and five 787 Dreamliner long-haul planes, Boeing said.

Earlier Wednesday, Boeing said it had secured an order from Malaysia Airlines for 35 medium-range 737-800s worth more than 2.6 billion dollars.
