LISBON, July 31, 2008 (AFP) - Top flight Portuguese outfit Sporting Braga on Thursday said they had signed Cameroon international striker Albert Meyong Ze from Spain's Levante on a two-year contract.

'Meyong has signed a contract to the end of the 2009/2010 season,' Braga announced on their website.

Meyong, 27, caused a stir last season in playing in Portugal for Belenenses after already playing for both Levante and Albacete in Spain whereas FIFA regulations stipulated that a player may only appear for two clubs in a single season, even if he may be on the books of three.

Belenenses lost six points as a result after Portugal's Naval lodged a complaint.
