LIVERPOOL, England, Jan 12, 2008 (AFP) - Liverpool manager Rafa Benitez has admitted he would sell Mohamed Sissoko if he gets a good enough offer for the Mali midfielder.

Benitez knows Sissoko is unhappy after struggling to break into the Liverpool side this season.

The 22-year-old is wanted by Juventus and his former team Valencia, and Benitez would let him leave if the deal is right for both player and club.

'I was talking with 'Momo' about leaving a few times, and with his agent. We know we have two or three clubs asking about him and we will try to find the best solution for him and for us,' Benitez told Liverpool's website.

'It depends on if we find the right club and the right offer. We need to wait.

'I think we are pleased with the squad. The only thing is sometimes if you receive a fantastic offer for someone then you might consider it.'
